Casas Lilley are absolutely delighted to introduce this superb three-bedroom, two-bathroom family home located in the highly desirable Los Altos neighborhood. This exceptional property has undergone a comprehensive renovation and has access to an immaculately maintained communal swimming pool area. The house benefits from an east-facing orientation that floods the interiors with glorious morning sunlight. Upon arrival, you're greeted by an attractive front garden and a charming covered terrace area. Step inside to discover a completely transformed interior where no detail has been overlooked. The ground floor showcases brand new high-quality flooring throughout the generous living space which feels wonderfully bright and airy. The downstairs accommodation
